

PABLO'S EYE
A mountain is an idea
The Florist's Mum - TFM004

Review

A Mountain Is An Idea is Pablo's Eye's first album of original music in over two decades. It is a soothing and immersive mix of ambient, spoken word and cinematic sound designs with various different languages drifting in and out. There are exotic instrumentals that take you to the Middle East, purely cosmic passages of escapist sound and mindful musical movements that disarm and liberate in equal measure. The record sounds at once ancient and organic, but also futuristic and synthetic. It's a beguiling listen.
